Dear Mr. Braverman:

Thank you for your assistance in making the 1998 AEA Convention a success. Based on the comments that were made by participants on the evaluation forms, everyone enjoyed your presentations tremendously. Many of the teachers appreciated your allowing them to actively participate in the session. You contributed greatly to the success of the Convention.

Comments by participants included, "gave excellent ideas about using humor in the classroom," and "wonderful attention-getting presenter."

Again, thank you very much for your informative and very humorous presentation. I look forward to working with you again.

Sincerely,

Tyna D. Davis, Director
